

Please do not overturn the Do Not Call. We have registered for it and are so glad not to be bothered when we are eating dinner or any other time for something we are no at all interedted in. We made a habit a long time ago not to purchase anything over the telephone.